Burlington Pike Thrift Store doubles in size

If you haven't been to the Burlington Pike Thrift Store in a while, you owe it to yourself to stop back in because the store literally doubled in size last month by taking over the entire downstairs of their location.

"This added space brings our total store up to 3,000 square feet and gives us the chance to take in more bigger pieces," said Marya Haynes, who owns the store with her mother, Pat Welsh. In addition, the extra space has opened up twice as much space for clothing.

Even with more space, the concept is still the same: she buys items from people and then resells them. "If you've got a closet or basement to clean out, give us a call. We buy everything from linens to kayaks," said Haynes.

Stop by the Burlington Pike Thrift Store, 1624 Burlington Pike across from Oakbrook. Open seven days a week, Monday through Saturday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday noon to 5 p.m. Call 859-534-0775 for more information.
